

ON THE COVER

Cover photographer David Vance captures the essence of 14-year-old Niki Taylor. Styling is by David Emory, Wardrobe from Hero Clothing and Make-up and Hair by Deev. Niki is with Irene Marie Models.

CONTENTS

PROFILE

Shelly Abramowitz

FEATURE

The House of Tautinger

By Lisa Palley

BOSS

Fashion's New Dreamface

By Theodore Gantner

THEATRE

A little gas with your pie

By Kim Stark

SOCIETY

By Norma Jean Abraham

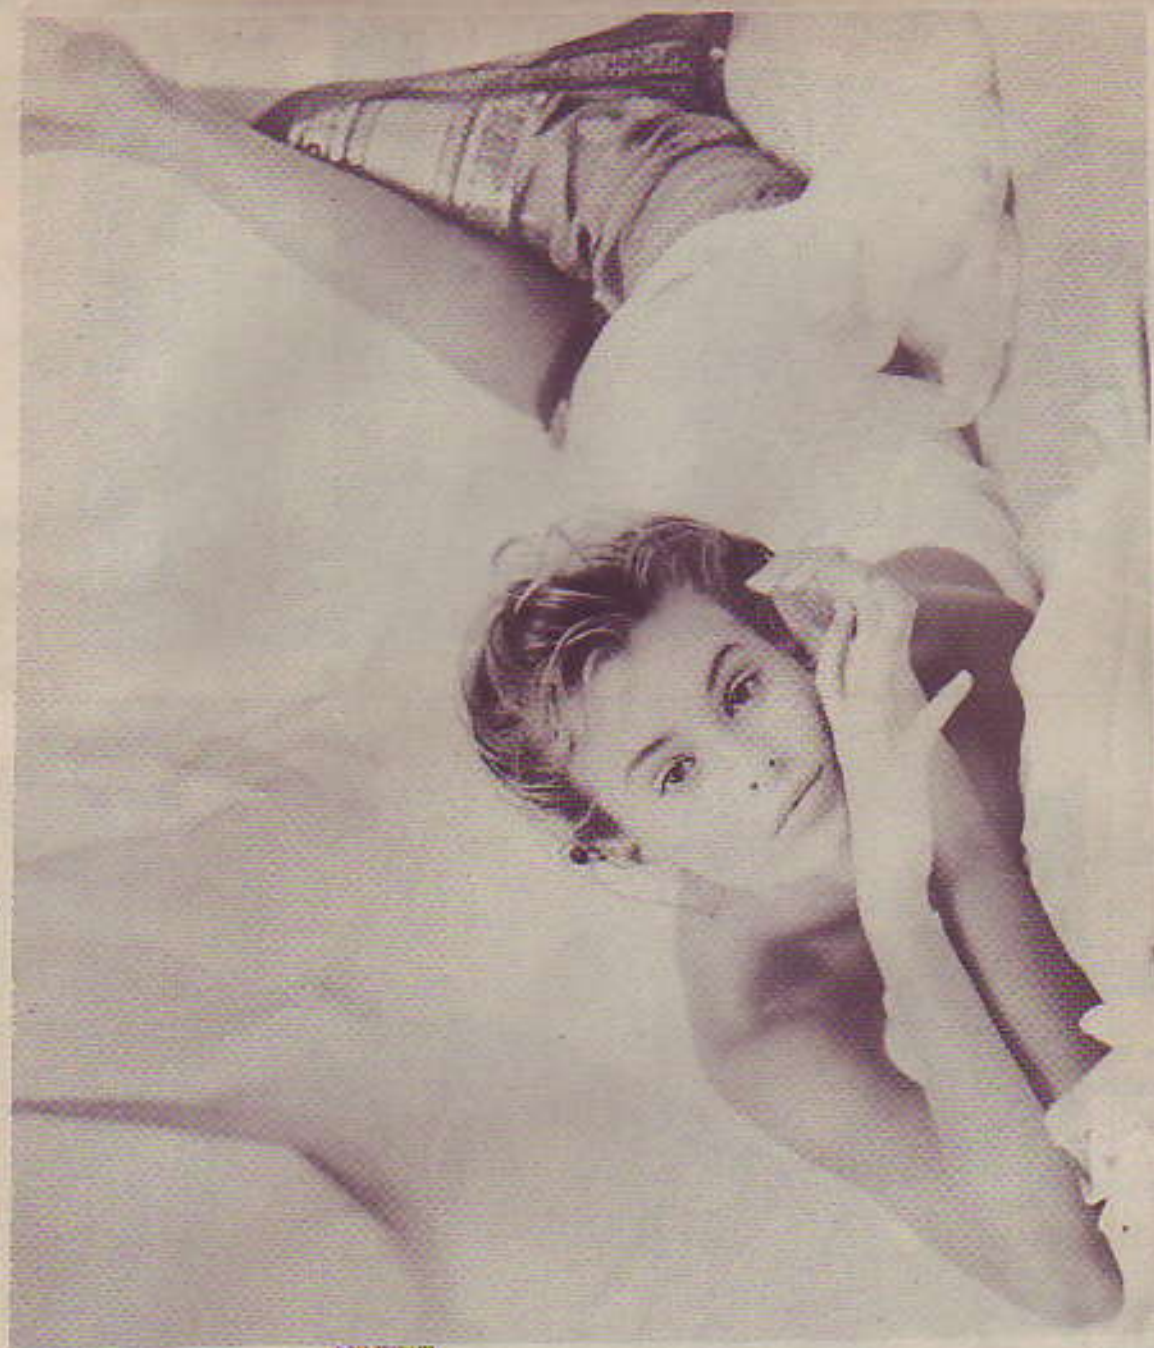

WILDLIFE

By Danny Garcia

POSTMORTEM / '74-'75: an examination or analysis after the event.
Volume Two, Number 51 Thursday, October 12, 1989
850 WASHINGTON AVENUE MIAMI BEACH, FLORIDA 33139

F A C C E S
postumum

FACCIOMI'S A

HAIRY

Put fourteen year-old Niki Taylor in front of a camera lens and magic occurs.

What set out to be only a couple of trial shots, have launched Niki Taylor headlong into a seven month photography sessions with famous photographers such as Skrebneski and David Vance.

Three of her seven months have been dedicated to covers of Seventeen Magazine (August, October and November), to testing with local photographers and doing editorial spreads — for local and national magazines.

Born in Coral Gables, Niki attends Cooper City High School, and with studying and modeling every second is filled.

Niki is signed with Irene Marie, and has received offers from top agents in New York who are scrambling for their chance to book her.

Expect to see more of Niki Taylor, locally, nationally and internationally. She has the look and feel carries her through fashion shoots that top models have taken years to perfect. "I move better when I have a rapport with the team I'm working with," she said. "I do what I think will sell the clothes the way I think other people would see it."

And Niki's reaction to all of this? "I'm just another face in the crowd."

Postscript

NEW DIVA TROPIC

Photography by Denny Wiss
Styling by Theodora Gunter
Hair and Makeup: David Shannon

a torrent of

sex) and the

ibling

d that.

yl

s.1

"I'm just another face in the crowd."

Niki Taylor

NEW DREAMFACE